NFL Punt Pass and Kick

Punt, Pass and Kick is a free, national skills program organized by the National Football League in partnership with local groups such as parks and recreation departments, Boys and Girls Clubs, Pop Warner, etc. The program is geared for boys and girls ages 8-15 to compete separately against their peers in punting, passing and place-kicking. Kids of all abilities are welcome, and offered an equal opportunity to compete. This is a free event to all participants. The top finishers in each age group advance to an Area Competition; traditionally, this event is hosted by the San Diego Chargers at Qualcomm Stadium during a season game. The City of Carlsbad Recreation Department is offering this program in collaboration with the Carlsbad Boys and Girls Club. Proof of age and additional waiver provided by NFL is required for this program. For more info, please see www.carlsbadsports.org or call 434-2971.
